

A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
2	4/25/18	"China Censors Spark Uproar In Quashing Student Activist," The Wall Street Journal, April 25, 2018 A7. Students make a request for open records from the Peking University about 20-year old rape allegations. The government rejects it. And then slams a student who circulated a letter telling her story through social media. And that story circulates.
3	4/25/18	"CFPB May Restrict Complaint Database," The Wall Street Journal, April 25, 2018 A5. Government may restrict public access to a database of consumer complaints that haven't been verified by the government.
4	4/25/18	"EPA Limits Data Used in New Rules," The Wall Street Journal April 25, 2018 A4. Underlying studies must be made public and the findings must be reproducible before research will be used to justify new regulations.
5	4/27/18	"EU Presses Tech Firms on Search Results, Fake News," The Wall Street Journal, April 27, 2018 B5. The EU looks into how Google and Facebook control what EU residents see, requiring more transparency as to how they filter what we see.
6	4/27/18	Wells Fargo Faces 401(k) Probe," The Wall Street Journal, April 27, 2018 A1. Investigation as to whether the bank pressured people in cheaper corporate 401(k) plans to roll their investment over into more expensive programs run by the bank.
7	4/27/18	"India's Central Bank: Faux Coins? Fake News!," The Wall Street Journal, April 27, 2018 A16. Central Bank tries to quash rumors on social media that certain coins (introduced to replace paper money) are counterfeit.
8	4/30/18	"Use of Database Raises Questions," The Wall Street Journal, April 30, 2018 A6. Private genetics website used to link the DNA from a murder scene to the suspected Golden State Killer.
9	4/30/18	"Worker Wins Ruling in Spy Case," The Wall Street Journal, April 30, 2018 A4. Court orders government to reinstate and pay back pay to a hydrologist at the Commerce Department fired two years ago for providing publicly-available data to a former classmate who just happened to be a water-resources official in China.
10	5/1/18	"Israel Targets Iran Accord," The Wall Street Journal, May 1, 2018 A1. Israel releases Iranian documents about a nuclear weapons program found in an abandoned warehouse.
11	5/1/18	"Fake News' Law Snares an Offender," The Wall Street Journal, May 1, 2018 A16. A visitor to Malaysia convicted and sentenced for publishing "fake news" about how quickly/slowly emergency services responded to a shooting.
12	5/1/18	"Banks Draw Bead on Guns," The Wall Street Journal, May 1, 2018 B1. Banks and credit card companies discuss tracking your purchases of guns.
13	5/1/18	Guilty Verdict in Autonomy Case," The Wall Street Journal, May 1, B2. Former CFO of Autonomy convicted of fraud in connection with the sale of Autonomy to HP for $11 billion in 2011.
14	5/1/18	"Facebook Shares the Shared," The Wall Street Journal, May 1, 2018 B5. Now you can download any of 25 categories of the information that Facebook keeps on you. Your search history.
15	5/2/18	"MetLife Finance Chief Hele Leaves Post," The Wall Street Journal, May 2, 2018 B12. After the company failed to try hard enough (very hard? at all?) to find pensioners to whom it owed money, and had weaknesses in its financial controls, the company reduces the incentive pay of the CFO.
16	5/2/18	"Goldman to Settle Foreign-Exchange Case," The Wall Street Journal, May 2, 2018 B12. Goldman's foreign exchange traders shared the market positions of Goldman's clients with "rivals." Goldman to pay fine of ~$110 million for failing to supervise properly.
17	5/2/18	"Now Emoting in the Corner Office: The Oversharing CEO," The Wall Street Journal, May 2, 2018 A1. Can CEOs disclose too much information about themselves in a quest for transparency?
18	5/3/18	"Facebook Fires 'Stalker' Security Employee," The Wall Street Journal, May 3, 2018 B1. A self-described professional stalker employed by Facebook abruptly fired after apparently accessing private Facebook user data of a woman he met on Tinder.
19	5/3/18	"Data Firm Shut After Facebook Scandal," The Wall Street Journal, May 3, 2018 A1. Cambridge Analytica, which used Facebook user data during the 2016 Presidential Campaign, shuts down.
20	5/4/18	"U.S. Indicts VW's Former CEO," The Wall Street Journal, May 4, 2018 B1. Former CEO indicted in March for conspiracy and wire fraud following the emissions cheating scandal.
21	5/4/18	"Facebook Has Dual Standard On Privacy," The Wall Street Journal, May 4, 2018 B1. If you're in a special group in Facebook, you get an alert if someone accesses your profile; if you're a muggle, or don't work at Facebook, you don't.
22	5/4/18	"Theranos Hurt Big-Name Investors," The Wall Street Journal, May 4, 2018 B1. Company said it had the technology to do a wide range of blood tests based on a few drops of blood.
23	5/5/18	"Wells Fargo Reaches Settlement In Lawsuit," The Wall Street Journal, May 5, 2018 B10. Tentative settlement in suit alleging certain "current and former officers and directors of the bank had made false statements" affecting the stock price between 2014 and 2016.

A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
24	5/7/18	"Fidelity Ousts 200 for Benefit Misuse," The Wall Street Journal, May 7, 2018 B1. Employees allegedly tried to cheat Fidelity by claiming reimbursement for computer or health care expenses to which they were not entitled.
25	5/8/18	"Tech Firms Update Privacy Protections," The Wall Street Journal, May 8, 2018 B4. Firms adjust their privacy policies to comply with European restrictions, even where the European restrictions don't apply.
26	5/8/18	"H&amp;M Ramps Up Data Use," The Wall Street Journal, May 8, 2018 B4. Store chain mines social media to identify and track trends, and analyses store-specific information to determine what to stock in that store.
27	5/8/18	"Church Shooter Was Ticking Bomb," The Wall Street Journal, May 8, 2018 A6. The church shooter in Sutherland Springs, Texas, made a video confession five years earlier.
28	5/10/18	"Wells Kept Client's Fund Fee Rebates," The Wall Street Journal, May 10, 2018 B1. Wells Fargo apparently failed to pass on fee rebates that Wells Fargo had received for a pension fund for which Wells Fargo acted as a trustee.
29	5/12/18	"Barclays CEO Hit With Penalties of $1.5 Million," The Wall Street Journal, May 12, 2018 B1. UK regulators fined him nearly $870,000 for a "serious error of judgment."
30	14-May-18	"Paris Attacker Was Flagged as Risk," The Wall Street Journal, May 14, 2018 A8. Attacker in Paris was in the database, but nevertheless was able to kill.
31	5/15/18	"New Methods Aim to Speed Stroke Care," The Wall Street Journal, May 15, 2018 A3. Algorithms compare a patient's brain scans against a database, allowing quicker diagnosis and treatment, even by non-experts. Is this closer to using AI to practice medicine?
32	5/16/18	"Facebook Focuses on Policing Content," The Wall Street Journal, May 16, 2018 B4. Facebook doubling the number of people reviewing and controlling content.
33	5/16/18	"Suspect In Massive CIA Leak Identified," The Wall Street Journal, May 16, 2018 A2. Did a former employee leak CIA hacking tools? How do you protect yourself from former employees leaking your information?
34	5/18/18	"Tips for Decoding Privacy-Policy Gibberish," The Wall Street Journal, May 18, 2018 B4. In the run-up to implementation of the GDPR in Europe next week, companies are updating their privacy policies.
35	5/18/18	"Wells Fargo Faces More Woe Over Client Data," The Wall Street Journal, May 18, 2018 B1. Another shoe drops at Wells Fargo (when will it ever end?) after disclosure that employees in the wholesale business (non-consumer) banking side changed and added customer information without approval.
36	5/18/18	"CBS Board Defies Shari Redstone," The Wall Street Journal, May 18, 2018 B1. Board tries to reduce the control exercised by an 80% shareholder.
37	5/18/18	"Police Move to Make Their Radio Traffic Private," The Wall Street Journal, May 18, 2018 A3. Police encrypt or delay release of radio traffic, limiting but not preventing public access. Keeps the crowds down.
38	5/18/18	"Hundreds of Cryptocurrencies Show Hallmarks of Fraud," The Wall Street Journal, May 18, 2018 A1. Plagiarism, promises of future returns, and fake executives found in offering materials for cryptocurrency companies.
39	5/19/18	"Partners in Blood," The Wall Street Journal, May 19, 2018 C1. Reports from the trenches at Theranos, which said it was able to run a range of tests from a few drops of blood; it couldn't. SEC charges company with fraud, and investors lose millions.
40	5/19/18	"Data Firm Files for Bankruptcy," The Wall Street Journal, May 19, 2018 B3. Cambridge Analytica, who used Facebook data in connection with the Trump campaign, files for Chapter 7 (not Chapter 11) bankruptcy.
41	5/21/18	"FAA Was Slow to Act On Engine Warning," The Wall Street Journal, May 21, 2018 B1. FAA (and the airline industry) knew of the potential for engine blades to crack for 2 years. The manufacturer increased inspections. Then one blade cracked, destroying an engine and killing a passenger on the Southwest airlines flight in April.
42	5/23/18	"Amazon's Tool for Facial Recognition Fans Privacy Fears," The Wall Street Journal, May 23, 2018 B4. People reach to Amazon's sale of facial recognition technology to law enforcement authorities, fearing such technology might be misused.
43	5/23/18	"Senators' Identities Misused On Site," The Wall Street Journal, May 23, 2018 A2. People apparently spoofed the names of two US Senators when making comments on an FCC website seeking views on net neutrality. Apparently, nearly 8,000 other people made the same complaint.
44	5/24/18	"Musk Hits At Media For Tesla Coverage," The Wall Street Journal, May 24, 2018 B4. Elon plans a site where the public can rate the credibility of news sources.
45	5/24/18	"NFL Adopts New Anthem Policy," The Wall Street Journal, May 24, A14. Teams (but not players) can be fined if NFL players on the field do not stand for the National Anthem.
46	5/24/18	"Judge Thwarts Trump's Twitter Exclusion," The Wall Street Journal, May 24, 2018 A4. Federal judge rules that public officials can't restrict who can see their personal Twitter feeds.

A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
47	5/26/18	"Goldman's Rising Stars Told to Hold," The Wall Street Journal, May 26, 2018 B9. Two years ago, a group of high-potential employees were told they were on the fast track and would get promoted before the rest of their class. Now they are told there is no fast track this year.
48	5/26/18	"New EU Rule Puts Scare Into Websites," The Wall Street Journal, May 26, 2018 B4. US websites block access by people in the EU to avoid breach of new GDPR.
49	5/26/18	"Software Flaw Trips Fiat Chrysler," The Wall Street Journal, May 26, 2018 B1. Short circuit could prevent you from disengaging the cruise control. Results in recall of 5.3 million vehicle.
50	5/29/18	"Homes Were Built Despite Documented Lava Threat," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 A3. Affordable homes were built in an area with a history of lava risk.
51	5/29/18	"Probes, Cyberattack Distract Atlanta as It Pitches Amazon," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 A3. Investigations of former mayor and the aftermath of a ransomware attack hamper efforts to entice Amazon to the city.
52	5/29/18	"Augmented Reality Gives Brain Surgeons a Better View," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 R1.
53	5/29/18	"AI Tools Help the Blind Tackle Everyday Tasks," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 R4.
54	5/29/18	"Robots and Chatbots Look After the Elderly," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 R6.
55	5/29/18	"Apps Promise to Help Avoid Pregnancy," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 R7.
56	5/29/18	"For Those With Dementia, an Assist From Technology," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 R8.
57	5/29/18	"Doctors, Beware: You're Being Watched," The Wall Street Journal, May 29, 2018 R10."
58	5/30/18	"Starbucks Takes as Break For Its Antibias Training," The Wall Street Journal, May 30, 2018 B2. Starbucks's shuts down for several hours to train its employees on what "bias" means.
59	5/30/18	What Keeps CIOs Up at Night? --Cybersecurity
60	5/30/18	Anatomy of a Phishing Attack ---Cybersecurity
61	5/30/18	How to Create a Cybersafe Culture -Cybersecurity
62	5/30/18	Security Jobs Go Begging -Cybersecurity
63	5/30/18	The Problem with Security Questions -Cybersecurity
64	5/30/18	Encryption is Tricky -Cybersecurity
65	5/30/18	Consider a Password Manager -Cybersecurity
66	5/30/18	Women in Cybersecurity
67	5/31/18	"New Math: Firms Repair CEO Pay Flubs," The Wall Street Journal, May 31, 2018 B4. Lots of mistakes being made in disclosure about how much money the CEO really makes.
68	5/31/18	"New Steps to Secure Your Business Trip," The Wall Street Journal, May 31, 2018 A12. Employers practice "due care" when overseeing traveling employees.
69	6/1/18	"HHS Probes Rules on Giving Abortion Information," The Wall Street Journal, June 1, 2018 A4. HHS Office for Civil Rights investigates state requirements that crisis pregnancy centers must advise women about abortion services.
70	6/1/18	"Goldman Employee Is Arrested," The Wall Street Journal, June 1, 2018 B8. A banker now on leave from his job at Goldman Sachs charged with insider trading. He allegedly accessed information about upcoming mergers and acquisitions and then traded stocks.
71	6/2/18	"Visa Hit by Outage In Parts of Europe," The Wall Street Journal, June 2, 2018 B12. Users of Visa cards in Europe couldn't use their cards on Friday as the result of a hardware failure.
72	6/4/18	"Spy Squad Fights Hidden Cameras," The Wall Street Journal, June 4, 2018 A8. A team of 50 sweeps public restrooms in Seoul, Korea, searching for hidden cameras.
73	6/4/18	"Wall Street Moves Toward Mining of Social-Media Data," The Wall Street Journal, June 4, 2018 B4. Companies now looking focusing on "alternative data reports" concerning a potential acquisition target, which are things such as user "purchase data, mobile app usage[,] and web surveys of prices."
74	6/5/18	"Australia's Biggest Bank Faces Record Fine," The Wall Street Journal, June 5, 2018 B10. Fine of $530 million proposed for bank who failed to catch transfers of money in and out of an account owned by someone who left the country (Australia) in 1999 (and who "had also been charged in Lebanon in 2004 with belonging to a terrorist organization...").
75	6/8/18	"Spies Make Push Into Phone-Hacking," The Wall Street Journal, June 8, 2018 B4. Governments increase attempts to hack mobile phone to access the vast troves of data there.
76	6/8/18	"Google Bans AI in Weapons," The Wall Street Journal, June 8, 2018 B4. Google prohibits the use of certain of its artificial information technology in weapons systems.
77	6/8/18	"Facebook Exposed Postings, The Wall Street Journal, June 8, 2018 B1. Posts for 14 million Facebook users made public for 10 days, regardless of their default preferences. Software bug blamed.

A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
78	6/8/18	"Old Spy Plane Tries to Learn New Tricks," The Wall Street Journal, June 8, 2018 A3. Using new data analytical techniques to harvest more information from U2 spy photos taken from 70,000 feet, freeing up human viewers for other duties.
79	6/9/18	"Facebook Gave Out User Data Despite Pledge," The Wall Street Journal, June 9, 2018 A1. Notwithstanding a commitment not to do so, Facebook continued to give some companies access to user information.
80	6/12/18	"Sophisticated Email Scam Hits Businesses," The Wall Street Journal, June 12, 2018 A4. Spoofing emails used to get companies to pay fake invoices. $685million is claims in Q1 2018.
81	6/12/18	"Flaws Abound in Background Checks," The Wall Street Journal, June 12, 2018 A3. (Article not available on-line). The NCIS background check (prior to gun purchases) isn't 100% effective, because not everyone reports.
82	6/12/18	"Court Backs Purge of Voter Rolls," The Wall Street Journal, June 12, 2018 A3. Supreme Court allows Ohio to prune its voter rolls of people who haven't voted in a long time and who don't reply to an inquiry as to their status.
83	6/13/18	"Vietnam Tightens Web Grip With New Cybersecurity Law," The Wall Street Journal, June 13, 2018 A7. The Vietnamese government wants access to all Vietnam-based users' data.
84	6/14/18	"Volkswagen Fined $1 Billion in Germany," The Wall Street Journal, June 14, 2018 B4. Fine for "dereliction of management oversight" following the diesel emissions-testing scandal. Somewhat broader than a Caremark claim.
85	6/14/18	"iPhone Change To Block Police," The Wall Street Journal, June 14, 2018 B1. Apple "fixes" the technical hole that allows the authorities to break into the iPhone of a criminal or suspected criminal.
86	6/15/18	"Report Blasts FBI Agents, Comey Over Clinton Probe," The Wall Street Journal, June 15, 2018 A1. Inspector General releases his report on the Clinton investigation.
87	6/18/18	"Police Use of Driver Photos Stirs Debate," The Wall Street Journal, June 18, 2018 A3. In a robbery investigation, the victim gave police an Instagram photo of the suspect and the police ran that photo through a facial recognition system and the state's drivers license database, and a driver's license photo was identified. The driver was arrested.
88	6/19/18	"Audi CEO Is Arrested In Emissions Scandal," The Wall Street Journal, June 19, 2018 A1. Executive jailed in Germany to prevent obstruction of ongoing investigation into emissions testing scandal at VW.
89	6/20/18	"What the Airline Knows About The Guy in Seat 12A," The Wall Street Journal, June 20, 2018 A11. What information on you do airlines collect and how do they use it?
90	6/20/18	"McKinsey Held Back Chapter 11 Positions," The Wall Street Journal, June 20, 2018 B1. Consultant advises in bankruptcy proceedings while holding undisclosed interests in the outcomes.
91	6/20/18	"Phone Giants Cut Off Two Location Services," The Wall Street Journal, June 20, 2018, A1. Verizon, AT&amp;T, and Sprint will stop selling your location to two middlemen.
92	6/21/18	"Europe's Privacy Law Fails to Stoke Demand for Cyber Insurance," The Wall Street Journal, June 21, 2018 B10. Companies aren't buying as much privacy insurance as people thought.
93	6/21/18	"Tech to Track Errant Kegs," The Wall Street Journal, June 21, 2018 B4. Sensors installed to reduce 10% shrinkage rate from theft or misplacement of beer kegs. Could also track temperature.
94	6/21/18	"Tesla Accuses Former Employee of 'Sabotage,'" The Wall Street Journal, June 21, 2018 B3. Did a former employee hack Tesla's manufacturing software and trade secrets and transfer information outside the company?
95	6/22/18	"Court Rejects SEC Judge Process," The Wall Street Journal, June 22, 2018 A2. Supreme Court rules administrative law judges appointed by lower level staff are not constitutional.
96	6/23/18	"Court Ruling Boosts Phone Privacy," The Wall Street Journal, June 23, 2018 A1. The Supremes' rule that, in order to get your cell phone's location data from your service provider, the government needs a warrant.
97	6/27/18	"Analyst Arrested On Insider Charges," The Wall Street Journal, June 27, 2018 B12. S&amp;P Global Ratings employee allegedly disclosed information about acquisition of Valspar by Sherwin-Williams.
98	6/28/18	"Facebook Struggles to Find User Data," The Wall Street Journal, June 28, 2018 B1. "The company can't track where much of the [user] data went after it left the platform or figure out where is it now."
99	6/29/18	"Former Equifax Manager Is Charged," The Wall Street Journal, June 29, 2018 B3. To respond to the huge privacy breach at Equifax last year, the company set up a website to help some of those affected. The former software manager setting up that website bought some options, betting that Equifax's stock would go down once the breach was discovered. He faces criminal and civil charges.
100	6/29/18	"Emails Add to the Turmoil at WPP," The Wall Street Journal, June 29, 2018 B2. A company technician recovered WhatsApp messages from the phone of a former employee; these messages were then sent by encrypted email to a few employees. Technician who recovered the messages has also left the company. [BTW, messages on WhatsApp are encrypted point-to-point, but are recoverable from a device that received them.]

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
101	6/29/18	"Sweeping Privacy Bill Passes in California," The Wall Street Journal, June 29, 2018 B1. State law gives us the right to not share our data online, and to prohibit the sale of that information. Downside: it may cost you more.
102	6/30/18	"Newspaper Warned About Shooter," The Wall Street Journal, June 30, 2018 A3. Annapolis shooter.
103	6/30/18	"Controversial Facial System Identifies Suspect," The Wall Street Journal, June 30, 2019 A3. Facial recognition used to identify the shooter at the Capital Gazette in Annapolis, where five died. A picture was run through the drivers license data base, and up popped his license photo.
104	6/30/18	"CFPB Decides Not to Fine Citi on Overcharges," The Wall Street Journal, June 30, 2018 B12. Company failed to lower credit card interest rates for some customers when it should have. It will refund the overcharges and fix its practices, but won't pay a fine.
105	7/2/18	"Amazon Delves Into Health Data," The Wall Street Journal, July 2, 2018 B3. Amazon buys a company with a bunch of personal health information.
106	7/2/18	"Facebook Details Data Sharing," The Wall Street Journal, July 2, 2018 A1. Facebook "expands" its answer to the question, "Who else saw our data?" Apparently, a lot more people than Facebook said originally. A bunch of special deals and exemptions from Facebook's "policy."
107	7/3/18	"App Developers Gain Access To Millions of Gmail Inboxes," The Wall Street Journal, July 3, 2018 A1. Depending what you signed up for, your Gmail inbox may be being viewed by hundreds of outside software developers.
108	7/5/18	"Barnes &amp; Noble Cites Policy In Firing," The Wall Street Journal, July 5, 2016 B1. B&amp;N CEO and a member of the board fired after a little more than a year for violation of a so-far-undisclosed company policy..
109	7/6/18	"App Tracks Driving Habits," The Wall Street Journal, July 6, 2018 B3. Mitsubishi installs app and offers to arrange to send data to insurers.
110	7/6/18	"Cheap Phones Grab User Data," The Wall Street Journal, July 6, 2018 B1. Cell phones sold in developing countries with limited privacy protections loaded with programs that harvest data.
111	7/7/18	"Professor Wins College-Freedom Case in Wisconsin," The Wall Street Journal, July 7, 2018 A3. Private university penalizes professor for posting a factual post online, despite academic freedom protections he had in his contract; professor wins back pay and reinstatement.
112	7/10/18	"Secret Formula, Intelligence Tests Fuel Buyout Firm," The Wall Street Journal, July 10, 2018 A1. Private equity fund has a list of 110 best practices, against which software companies are measured for investment.
113	7/10/18	"Alphabet, Apple Prodded On Privacy," The Wall Street Journal, July 10, 2018 A3. Congress asks how Google and Apple use "your" information, such as what you say and write and where you are.
114	7/11/18	"SEC Charges Ex-CEO With Insider Trading," The Wall Street Journal, July 11, 2018 B12. Ex-CEO charged with giving his paramour inside information (and money) to buy stocks.
115	7/12/18	"Hacker Allegedly Tried to Sell Drone Data," The Wall Street Journal, July 12, 2018 A3. Hacker tries to sell maintenance documents for a drone, documents stolen from a Air Force officer's computer.
116	7/12/18	"FCC Proposes Revamp Of Online Documents," The Wall Street Journal, July 12, 2018 A3. Proposed revision to process for receiving public comments after fake comments filed in the net neutrality discussion.
117	7/13/18	"Blockchain Helps Track Web Ads," The Wall Street Journal, July 13, 2018 B4. Technology used to determine whether "views" are by humans or bots, and where the advertising dollars are going.
118	7/13/18	"SEC Takes Close Look At Facebook Data Lapse," The Wall Street Journal, July 13, 2018 B1. SEC looks at whether Facebook responded appropriately after learning that user data was being used inappropriately.
119	7/14/18	"Lust, Anger Topple Powerful Lawyer," The Wall Street Journal, July 14, 2018 A1. Sexting scandal costs head of major law firm his job (and his ~$6 million salary), even though he did nothing beyond sending and receiving the texts.
120	7/16/18	"Third Parties Know Exactly Where You Are," The Wall Street Journal, July 16, 2018 B4. Apparently, if you're on Verizon, 75 companies know where your phone is.
121	7/17/18	"Ex-CEO at Oil Driller Settles SEC Inquiry On Undisclosed Loans," The Wall Street Journal, July 17, 2018. CEO had taken more than $10 million in loans from vendors in return for awarding contracts.
122	7/17/18	"Egypt Passes Media Law Targeting 'Fake News,'" The Wall Street Journal, July 17, 2018 A18. Traditional media and larger social media outlets now subject to penalties for spreading fake news, defaming, or inciting hatred.
123	7/18/18	"Chips CEO Resigns Over Conduct," The Wall Street Journal, July 18, 2018 B1. CEO of Texas Instruments fired/forced-to-resign after two months for violating company's Code of Conduct. Probably no package, either. No details on the nature of the violation.
124	7/20/18	"Paramount TV's Head Fired Over Remarks," The Wall Street Journal, July 20, 2018 B3. Amy Powell fired over remarks of a racial nature. Probably got a cinder block parachute, although the article doesn't say.

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
125	7/20/18	"Wells Refunds Millions to Clients," The Wall Street Journal, July 20, 2018 B1. Wells Fargo refunds insurance premiums to hundreds of thousands of customers who bought "add-on" services such as pet insurance, identity theft, home warranties, debt protection, and legal services.
126	7/21/18	"State Street Intensifies Its Shift Into Data," The Wall Street Journal, July 21, 2018 B12. Firm, formerly focused on holding securities belonging to others and doing some associated accounting services, buys Charles River Systems, which performs a whole host of financial data services with its software.
127	7/21/18	"Cohen Recorded Talk With Trump," The Wall Street Journal, July 21, 2018 A1. Trump's then-personal lawyer recorded a conversation with then-private-citizen Trump about a Playboy model.
128	7/23/18	"Theranos Settle Investor Suit As Firm Runs Low on Funds," The Wall Street Journal, July 23, 2018 B3. Investors alleged Theranos had defrauded them by making false statements about the company's technology.
129	7/24/18	"Russia Hacks Its Way into U.S. Utilities," The Wall Street Journal, July 24, 2018 A3. Russian hackers gain access to sensitive information at utilities by compromising the utilities' vendors and their access to the utilities' systems. Can the hackers take control of those systems or shut them down?
130	7/26/18	"Vanguard Messes Up Messages To Clients," The Wall Street Journal, July 26, 2018 B10. Money manager with over $5 trillion in assets under management sends text messages to clients that the money manager had processed loans against their 401(k) accounts. But the customers hadn't requested the loans.
131	7/26/18	"Temple Is Probed Over Online MBA Marketing," The Wall Street Journal, July 26, 2018 B5. University accused of deceptive marketing to prospective MBA students.
132	7/26/18	"Airline Wi-Fi Isn't Connecting to Profits," The Wall Street Journal, July 26, 2018 B1. Is it because the service is too slow, or too expensive?
133	7/27/18	"Fiat Says It Didn't Know CEO was Ill," The Wall Street Journal, July 27, 2018 B1. Company says privacy of health care information meant they didn't know that their CEO had been sick for a year.
134	7/28/18	"Advisers Blew Whistle on Wells Fargo Wealth Unit," The Wall Street Journal, July 28 2018 B1. Sales incentives drive improper behavior at Wells Fargo. Again.
135	7/28/18	"Read This Extremely Important, Totally Incomprehensible, Completely Convoluted Information About Your Broker!" The Wall Street Journal, July 28, 2018 B1. Confusion over required SEC disclosures.
136	7/30/18	"CBS to Weigh CEO's Fate," The Wall Street Journal, July 30, 2018 A1. Discussion over whether CEO accused of sexual harassment should stand down while the investigation continues.
137	7/31/18	"Data Curbs Put Facebook in Bind," The Wall Street Journal, July 31, 2018 B4. The GDPR in Europe places new restrictions on Facebook's business model. The new rules make it harder for Facebook to get advertising revenue based on the views by users of the platform.
138	7/31/18	"Top Lawyers Evade Harassment Claims," The Wall Street Journal, July 31, 2018 A1. Partner switches to a new firm that didn't know of his history of harassment.
139	8/2/18	"Ohio State Puts Meyer On Leave Amid Probe," The Wall Street Journal, August 2, 2018 A6. Coach put on admin leave pending investigation into whether he knew that one of his assistant coaches beat up his spouse in 2009, when the coaches were both at Florida.
140	8/6/18	"Hiring Hazard: Social Media," The Wall Street Journal, August 6, 2018 B1. What happens when you hire (or don't hire) someone with a "history" of social media postings, some of which may now (or then, or both) be viewed as objectionable?
141	8/6/18	"My Boss Makes What? (Employees Work Harder If They Know)," The Wall Street Journal, August 6, 2018 R1. Salary transparency makes people work harder.
142	8/6/18	"U.S. Steps Up Grid Defense," The Wall Street Journal, August 6, 2018 A1. Government devising new penalties for foreign (and domestic) agents who hack into critical infrastructure.
143	8/7/18	"GAM Says Fund Manager Breached Policies on Gifts," The Wall Street Journal, August 7, 2018 B10. "[T]he star fund manager" also used his personal email to transact business for the company, and failed to follow other company procedures.
144	8/7/18	"Facebook Asks Banks for Customer Data," The Wall Street Journal, August 7, 2018 A1. "[T]o offer new services to users," Facebook asks banks for "detailed financial information about their customers."
145	8/9/18	"SEC Probes Musk Tweets On Possible Tesla Buyout," The Wall Street Journal, August 9, 2018 A1. Were Elon Musk's tweets about having lined up financing for a buyout false or misleading? The SEC may want to know.
146	8/11/18	"On Social Media, a Battle Is Brewing Between Bots and Trolls," The Wall Street Journal, August 11, 2018 B7. Blocking some speech and some speakers would be bad if the government did it. But is it better if private companies do it, especially when they have pervasive power over the communications streams currently in use?

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
147	8/18/18	"What Your Car Knows About You," The Wall Street Journal, August 18, 2018 B4. Large of amounts of data being collected from on-board devices, and used by car makers and others.
148	8/20/18	"For Some Bonds, It's Too Easy Being Green," The Wall Street Journal, August 20, 2018 B1. A quarter of Chinese bonds marketed as green bonds were rejected by "a de facto watchdog for the market" as not really being environmentally friendly.
149	8/21/18	"Workers Deal With Too Many Bosses," The Wall Street Journal, August 21, 2018 B1. According to a recent poll, two-thirds of employees have more than one boss. Some employees respond by trying to manage their bosses.
150	8/23/18	"Wells Fargo Probes Staff Expenses," The Wall Street Journal, August 23, 2018 B1. Employees, including at least one managing director, suspended for falsifying receipts for after-hours meals.
151	8/24/18	"U.S. Probes Microsoft on Bribery," The Wall Street Journal, August 24, 2018 B1. DOJ probes sales of software licenses to middlemen for ultimate sales to smaller governments.
152	8/24/18	"Former Intelligence Contractor Gets Five Years in Prison for Leak," The Wall Street Journal, August 24, 2018 A2. Reality Winner, a contract worker at the NSA, gets sentenced for leaking a secret report on election hacking by the Russians from the NSA to a news outlet.
153	8/29/18	"Yahoo, Bucking Industry, Scans Emails for Data to Sell," The Wall Street Journal, August 29, 2018 A1. Unlike its competition, Verizon scans your Yahoo and AOL emails and shares the data with advertisers trying to sell you stuff.
154	8/29/18	"UBS Disclosure Breached Confidentiality," The Wall Street Journal, August 29, 2018 B12. A senior employee got suspended after a banker at UBS revealed the name of an investor who sold shares shortly after a public offering. Breached the standard confidentiality promises to clients.
155	9/6/18	"Truckers Take On Digital Traffic," The Wall Street Journal, September 6, 2018 B4. Trucking companies invest big time in technology to build brokerage operations to compete with third-party brokers.
156	9/7/18	Perennial Information, Governance, and Compliance poster child, Wells Fargo is back in the news again, this time following allegations that employees fraudulently added information on some customers' statements. "U.S. Probes Wells Bankers," The Wall Street Journal, September 7, 2018 B1.
157	9/7/18	"Moonves Negotiates Exit at CBS," The Wall Street Journal, September 7, 2018 A1. Departure of CEO accused of sexual harassment comes during contentious battle for corporate control.
158	9/7/18	"Weinstein Is Investigated for Possible Fraud," The Wall Street Journal, September 7, 2018 A2. Did Harvey use a secretive Israeli investigator and a white-shoe Wall Street law firm to dig up dirt on people accusing Harvey of bad deeds? Is this wire fraud, or piling on?
159	9/8/18	"Booker's 'Spartacus' Moment Thwarted," The Wall Street Journal, September 8, 2018 A4. Senator says he will risk his Senate seat to publish confidential documents. Turns out the documents weren't confidential.
160	9/8/18	"Exits, Musk Interview Sting Tesla," The Wall Street Journal, September 8, 2018 A1. CEO apparently smokes marijuana during live interview.
161	9/9/18	Naomi Osaka Gets the Last Word," The Wall Street Journal, September 9, 2018 (online). Serena Williams complained mightily after she was warned, penalized a point, and then penalized a game in her dispute with the umpire. She was also fined $17,000, although she still received more than $1 million for second place.
162	9/10/18	Lawsuit Tests Limits Of Bosses' Snooping," The Wall Street Journal, September 10, 2018 A3. Company buys an employee a computer to work from home. Employee buys software to allow him to access his work account from his new computer at home. Dispute arises, employee fired. Three days later, company accesses not only computer at employee's home, but also information contained on 2 attached hard drives.
163	9/10/18	"D.E. Shaw Faces a Fight Over Statement on Firing," The Wall Street Journal, September 10, 2018 B1. Partner of a large hedge fund, when given the option to retire at age 36, does so. Fund later says partner was fired after an internal investigation. Former partner files a complaint.
164	9/10/18	"Another NFL Problem: Fake Fans Lobbying the FCC," The Wall Street Journal, September 8, 2018 A1. People use fake names to lobby a federal agency.
165	9/10/18	"States Ramp Up Legal Scrutiny of Tech," The Wall Street Journal, September 10, 2018 A3. Are major tech companies banding together to suppress conservative viewpoints?
166	9/11/18	"CBS Board Was Warned Of Moonves Allegations," The Wall Street Journal, September 11, 2018 A1. Directors were told about a recent lawsuit alleging sexual harassment by the now-former CEO several decades ago, 6 months before the story broke.

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
167	9/13/18	"Top '60 Minutes' Producer Departs," The Wall Street Journal, September 13, 2018 B1. Producer who had been with CBS for 36 years, alleged to have sexually harassed at least one employee; was fired over a text message that may have been viewed as threatening a reporter who was reporting on various harassment scandals.
168	9/14/18	"Facebook to Check Validity of Photos, Videos," The Wall Street Journal, September 14, 2018 B5. This is part of an effort to limit Russian interference in US elections.
169	9/17/18	"Amazon Investigates Suspected Staff Bribes," The Wall Street Journal, September 17, 2018 A1. Did Amazon employees offer to sell confidential data to independent merchants?
170	9/19/18	"Tesla Is Subject Of DOJ Probe," The Wall Street Journal, September 19, 2018 B1. Did CEO's tweet break the law?
171	9/19/18	"Facebook Sought Users' Financial Data for Years," The Wall Street Journal, September 19, 2018 B1. Facebook has been trying to get your financial information from your financial firm. Some firms severely limited what Facebook could do with information transiting the Facebook Messenger servers.
172	9/20/18	"Unrecovered Texts Muddy Probe," The Wall Street Journal, September 20, 2018 A3. Investigators from a major law firm in Coach Meyer probe failed to look for deleted texts.
173	9/21/18	"Apps Can Scan, Share Data From Gmail Accounts," The Wall Street Journal, September 21, 2018 A4. Google (one of whose tenets is "Don't be evil") lets other companies scan your Gmail account.
174	9/28/18	"SEC Sues to Oust Musk From Tesla Over Tweets," The Wall Street Journal, September 28, 2018 A1. The SEC sued to remove Elon Musk as the CEO of Tesla, after Mr. Musk tweeted about funding for taking the company private.
175	10/25/18	"Apple CEO Urges Action on Data Misuse," The Wall Street Journal, October 25, 2018 B1. Tim Cook wants GDPR-style privacy protections in the US. Claims "[o]ur own information ... is being weaponized against us with military efficiency."
176	10/25/18	"SEC Keeps Study On Speed-Bump Trading Under Wraps," The Wall Street Journal, October 25, 2018 B11. SEC has done a study of controls that slow down high-frequency traders, but hasn't released that publicly.
177	10/26/18	"Deutsche Bank Dismisses an Executive," The Wall Street Journal, October 26, 2018 B10. Bank dismisses its asset-management chief.
178	10/26/18	"Facebook Draws U.K. Fine Over Sharing Data," The Wall Street Journal, October 26, 2018 B4. Facebook fined half a million Pounds ($645,000) for allowing Cambridge Analytica for letting them see and use user data. This is separate and apart from any fines the EU may impose.
179	10/27/18	"Fingerprint Leads to Arrest Of Bomb Suspect in Florida," The Wall Street Journal, October 27, 2018 A1. Alleged mail bomber's fingerprint in a package sent to a legislator leads to arrest of suspect.
180	10/27/18	"FBI Probes Tesla Over Production Figures," The Wall Street Journal, October 27, 2018 A1. FBI conducts a criminal investigation into whether Tesla knowingly overstated anticipated production figures and thereby misled investors.
181	10/27/18	"Woman Who Insulted Islam Loses in Europe Court," The Wall Street Journal, October 27, 2018 A7. Woman fined in Austria for "disparaging" a religious doctrine, and judgment upheld by European Court of Human Rights.
182	11/13/18	"Trudeau Says Canadians Heard Khashoggi Tapes," The Wall Street Journal, November 13, 2018 A7. Canadian intelligence officials hear audio tapes related to killing.
183	11/14/18	"CNN Sues the White House, Seeks Return of Press Pass," The Wall Street Journal, November 14, 2018 A3. Can the White House refuse to let in a member of the press into the White House for being rude?
184	11/15/18	"Beware the 'Free' Internet," The Wall Street Journal, November 15, 2018 A2. How much money do Facebook, Twitter, and Google get from allowing others to access you based on your data?
185	11/15/18	"Rebuke at Wells Shows Clash," The Wall Street Journal, November 15, 2018 B1. Chief administrative officer (and former head of HR) at Wells placed on leave after the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency criticizes the oversight that she and the bank's chief auditor provided.
186	11/16/18	"UC System is Sued for Data On Admissions," The Wall Street Journal, November 16, 2018 A2. Is the state university using race inappropriately in making admissions decisions?
187	11/17/18	"Judge Grants CNN's Press-Pass Motion," The Wall Street Journal, November 17, 2018 A3. Reporter's due process rights "appear to have been violated" when his access to the White House itself is restricted.
188	11/19/18	"Brokers Purge Their Records," The Wall Street Journal, November 19, 2018 B1. Brokers can request that complaints be expunged from the records of the industry-funded regulator. So, were you to ask you would be told there's no record.
189	11/21/18	"Carlos Ghosn's Arrest Rocks Auto Empire," The Wall Street Journal, November 21, 2018 (online). Nissan's CEO jailed for allegedly under-reporting his earnings by several tens of millions of dollars.
190	11/26/18	"Mueller Accuses Paul Manafort of Lying to FBI After Plea Agreement, The Wall Street Journal, November 26, 2018 (online). Did Manafort lie after he reached a plea deal?

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
191	11/29/18	"Fake Signals and Illegal Flags: How North Korea Uses Clandestine Shipping to Fund Regime," The Wall Street Journal, November 29, 2018 (online). How do shipments still arrive in and leave from North Korea, notwithstanding the various sanctions on the regime there? Apparently, it's blue smoke and mirrors.
192	11/29/18	"Facebook Considered Charging for Access to User Data," The Wall Street Journal, November 29, 2018 (online). Facebook considered charging people to access user data.
193	11/29/18	"New Parents Complain Amazon Baby-Registry Ads Are Deceptive," The Wall Street Journal, November 29, 2018 (online). Amazon accepts money from major companies to put "sponsored ads" on your list; there's a small gray box saying "Sponsored."
194	11/30/18	"Marriott Says Starwood Data Breach Affects Up to 500 Million People," The Wall Street Journal, November 30, 2018 (online). Data breach potentially affecting passports and credit cards of as many as 500 million guests at Marriott's Starwood properties, which were acquired in 2016. They knew about this in September, but reflects a breach that may go back to 2014.
195	11/30/18	"Amazon Makes Inroads Selling Medical Supplies to the Sick," The Wall Street Journal, November 30, 2018 (online). Doctors are putting lists of products to buy in your medical records, with a link to where you can buy them on Amazon.
196	11/30/18	"Germany Opens Amazon Antitrust Probe, Adding to European Scrutiny," The Wall Street Journal, November 30, 2018 (online). Is Amazon hindering other sellers on their website?
197	12/1/18	"U.S. Watchdog Says McKinsey Misled Bankruptcy Court," The Wall Street Journal, December 1, 2018 (online). Did McKinsey make misleading disclosures about what conflicts of interest it might have had?
198	12/2/18	"Fashion Industry Gossip Was Once Whispered. Now It's on Instagram.," The Wall Street Journal, December 2, 2018 (online). Instagram used to track fashion statements that are strikingly similar.
199	12/2/18	"Marriott's Starwood Missed Chance to Detect Huge Data Breach Years Earlier, Cybersecurity Specialists Say," The Wall Street Journal, December 2, 2018 (online). There was a prior breach in 2015 that, some say, could have been investigated more thoroughly.
200	12/3/18	"Paywall for HuffPost? Verizon Hunt for Web Revenue Goes Beyond Ads," The Wall Street Journal, December 3, 2018. Do you let people see content (plus ads) for "free," or do you charge for access?
201	12/4/18	"Who's Reading That News Story? Startup Will Help Marketers Find Out," The Wall Street Journal, December 4, 2018. Linking the desire of publishers and advertisers to monitor what news stories you look at and for how long, a start-up fills the gap.
202	12/4/18	"Disney Raises the Bar Robert Iger Has to Clear to Win Bonus," The Wall Street Journal, December 4, 2018. Shareholders push back on bonus compensation plan, demonstrating an unusual level of control (i.e., Governance) over their investment.
203	12/4/18	"Shell to Link Carbon Emissions Targets to Executive Pay," The Wall Street Journal, December 4, 2018.
204	12/5/18	"China's Alibaba Takes On Amazon in European Cloud," The Wall Street Journal, December 5, 2018. Chinese Cloud company challenges Amazon for control of the Cloud in Europe. Which (the US or China) will better protect the privacy of the users?
205	12/5/18	"U.S. Prosecutors Charge Four People in Panama Papers Probe," The Wall Street Journal, December 5, 2018. Action follow leak of law firm documents showing how wealthy people hid money from tax.
206	12/5/18	"China Maneuvers to Snag Top-Secret Boeing Satellite Technology," The Wall Street Journal, December 5, 2018. Boeing seemed unconcerned when a customer for one of its satellites told Boeing that the customer was being financed by Chinese interests, to whom sale of the top-secret technology involved was restricted.
207	12/6/18	"Wells Fargo Firing Dozens of Regional Managers in Retail-Bank Cleanup," The Wall Street Journal, December 6, 2018. More than two years after the account-cramming scandal, Wells Fargo starts to fire some regional managers for failure of oversight responsibilities.
208	12/6/18	"Facebook's Zuckerberg at Center of Emails Released by U.K. Parliament," The Wall Street Journal, December 6, 2018. Newly released emails show that Facebook apparently considered charging app developers for accessing "your" data held by Facebook, and suggest Facebook discounted the chance of developers sharing that data with others.
209	12/6/18	"Boeing Omitted Safety-System Details, Minimized Training for Crashed Lion Air 737 Model," The Wall Street Journal, December 6, 2018. Questions arise after 189 people killed in a crash and the crews hadn't been trained on the new flight-control system.
210	12/7/18	"Microsoft Pushes Urgency of Regulating Facial-Recognition Technology," The Wall Street Journal, December 7, 2018. Lack of worldwide restrictions on surveillance without a warrant leads Microsoft to urge restrictions on the technology.
211	12/7/18	"Boeing Backs Out of Global IP Satellite Order Financed by China, The Wall Street Journal, December 7, 2018. Did the press coverage have an impact?

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
212	12/8/18	"U.S. Alleges Huawei CFO Hid Ties to Telecom With Iran Business," The Wall Street Journal, December 8, 2018. Did the CFO lie to hide from banks connections Huawei had with company that did business with Iran?
213	12/10/18	"Thieves Can Now Nab Your Data in a Few Minutes for a Few Bucks," The Wall Street Journal, December 10, 2018. Following the series of major hacks of privacy data (e.g., Marriott, LinkedIn, Equifax, and Yahoo), "Every American person should assume all of their data is out there," said one FBI agent
214	12/10/18	"Comey Tells House Panel He Suspected Giuliani Was Leaking FBI Information to Media," The Wall Street Journal, December 10, 2018. Former FBI Director Comey, who admitted to leaking information to a reporter through a law school professor, complains that someone else did it, too.
215	12/11/18	"Amazon, Amid Crackdown on Seller Scams, Fires Employees Over Data Leak," The Wall Street Journal, December 11, 2018. Employees bribed for access to inside information.
216	12/11/18	"Under Armour Ousts Two Executives After Review of Expenses," The Wall Street Journal, December 11, 2018. Complying with company policy and procedures is sort of kind of like a job requirement.
217	12/11/18	"U.S. Investigating Fake Comments on 'Net Neutrality,'" The Wall Street Journal, December 11, 2018.
218	12/11/18	"New Report Shows Olympics Executives Concealed Knowledge of Nassar Allegations," The Wall Street Journal, December 11, 2018. Executives knew information about sexual abuse allegations, and failed to report.
219	12/12/18	"Super Micro Finds No Malicious Hardware in Motherboards," The Wall Street Journal, December 12, 2018. This contradicts a prior report from Bloomberg.
220	12/12/18	"Nissan-Renault Scandal Shows It's Hard to Keep Car Alliances On Track," The Wall Street Journal, December 12, 2018. A scandal at your business partner can affect your company's relationships.
221	12/13/18	"Renault Sticks With Carlos Ghosn as Internal Probe Finds No Illegality," The Wall Street Journal, December 13, 2018. What does it say to the rank-and-file when the Chairman gets arrested?
222	12/13/18	"Banks Get Kinder, Gentler Treatment Under Trump," The Wall Street Journal, December 13, 2018. Regulators are urged to be more collegial with the banks they regulate.
223	12/14/18	"U.S. Companies Asked to Disclose More About Their Workers," The Wall Street Journal, December 14, 2018. Pension funds ask employers to disclose more information than the SEC currently requires.
224	12/15/18	"Facebook Bug Potentially Exposed Unshared Photos of Up 6.8 Million Users," The Wall Street Journal, December 15, 2018. One almost gets the idea that protecting your privacy is not a high priority for them.
225	12/15/18	"PG&amp;E Falsified Gas Safety Records, California Claims," The Wall Street Journal, December 15, 2018.
226	12/15/18	"Chinese Hackers Breach U.S. Navy Contractors," The Wall Street Journal, December 15, 2018. What's this information worth, both to the US and to China?
227	12/17/18	"Glencore-Controlled Miner to Be Fined by Canadian Authorities Over Congo Ops," The Wall Street Journal, December 17, 2018. Fine of $22 million for company and some of its former directors and executives for hiding the risks of doing business with someone connected to Congolese president.
228	12/17/18	"The 'Fortnite' Dance Move That Spawned a Lawsuit," The Wall Street Journal, December 17, 2018. While longer dance routine can be protected by copyright law (which was a bit surprising to me), not so (so far) for "snippets."
229	12/17/18	"Renault Urges Nissan to Call for Shareholder Meeting Following Nissan Indictment," The Wall Street Journal, December 17, 2018. Is this interfering with "your" governance?
230	12/17/18	"Fight Over Voter Data Roils Democrats Ahead of Election," The Wall Street Journal, December 17, 2018. Have Republicans been better than the Democrats at collecting and storing information?
231	12/17/18	"Justice Department Chides McKinsey in Another Bankruptcy Case," The Wall Street Journal, December 17, 2018. McKinsey continues to fail to make what are viewed as adequate disclosures of conflicts when advising bankruptcy estates, and may not get paid for its work as a result.
232	12/18/18	"Goldman Sachs Ignored IMDb Warning Signs in Pursuit of Asian Business," The Wall Street Journal, December 18, 2018. Can chasing business too hard lead one to ignore important information and sidestep important controls?
233	12/19/18	"Barclays Fined $15 Million by New York Over CEO's Anti-Whistleblower Push," The Wall Street Journal, December 19, 2018. The CEO had tried to use the company's security department to locate the writer of a letter critical of a recent hire.
234	12/19/18	"Volkswagen Supplier to Plead Guilty to Conspiracy, Pay $35 Million Fine in Emissions-Cheating Probe," The Wall Street Journal, December 19, 2018. Company that designed the software used to fool or, as some say, cheat, the emission test pleads guilty to crime and pays a fine to US.
235	12/20/18	"Illinois Dioceses Withheld Names of Accused Priests, Report Says," The Wall Street Journal, December 20, 2018. Can you legally not disclose the name of an employee or a contractor who was accused of sexual abuse?

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
236	12/21/18	"Is It Really Five Stars? How to Spot Fake Amazon Reviews," The Wall Street Journal, December 21, 2018. How Amazon goes about trying to separate the wheat from the chaff.
237	12/22/18	"Room for Improvement? New Hotelier Tests an Algorithmic Pricing System," The Wall Street Journal, December 22, 2018. Using information about a customer and from a customer to establish the price for future sales to that customer.
238	12/24/18	"UBS to Pay $68 Million to Settle State Labor-Manipulation Claims," The Wall Street Journal, December 24, 2018. Goes back to the 2008 charges of mucking about the the benchmark London Interbank Offered Rate
239	12/24/18	"JD.com Founder Faces Backlash at Home: 'Behind the Law is Morality,'" The Wall Street Journal, December 24, 2018. Even though released and after the closure of a three-month investigation into a rape allegation, the founder of a large ecommerce business in China is still getting hammered in the Chinese press.
240	12/24/18	"Journalist at Center of False-Reporting Scandal Faces New Allegations Over Donation Requests," The Wall Street Journal, December 24, 2018. The first paragraph says it all: "German magazine Der Spiegel said it would file a criminal complaint against a former star writer
241	12/26/18	"Maintenance Lapse Identified as Initial Problem Leading to Lion Air Crash," The Wall Street Journal, December 26, 2018. Maybe it was not improper or inadequate training; maybe it was improper maintenance.
242	12/27/18	"Absolute Control": Cuba Steps Up Artistic Censorship," The Wall Street Journal, December 27, 2018. Cuba severely restricts an artist's ability to make money from his or her art.
243	12/27/18	"Commerce Department Won't Publish Data During Shutdown," The Wall Street Journal, December 27, 2018. One wonders what the consequences will be of the absence of this data.
244	12/27/18	"Acting Attorney General Matthew Whitaker Incorrectly Claims Academic All-American Honors," The Wall Street Journal, December 27, 2018. The Acting AG apparently made this error consistently on his resume for years; he wasn't an Academic All American
245	12/27/18	"Psychiatric Hospitals With Safety Violations Still Get Accreditation," The Wall Street Journal, December 27, 2018. What exactly does "accreditation" mean, if you can have a bunch of serious violations?
246	12/28/18	"Elon Musk Says Pedophile Accusation Against British Man Was Protected Speech," The Wall Street Journal, December 28, 2018.
247	12/28/18	"The Hidden System That Explains How Your Doctor Makes Referrals," The Wall Street Journal, December 28, 2018. Apparently, there are processes in place that might influence your doctor's judgment.
248	12/29/18	"Wells Fargo to Pay States About $575 Million to Settle Customer Harm Claims," The Wall Street Journal, December 29, 2018. More fallout from the account cramming and related scandals.
249	1/2/19	"Equifax Is Back in Washington's Crosshairs," The Wall Street Journal, January 2, 2019.	Congress planning new legislation for credit-reporting companies after the Equifax hack affecting nearly 150 million people.
250	1/3/19	"Fracking's Secret Problem—Oil Wells Aren't Producing as Much as Forecast," The Wall Street Journal, January 3, 2018.	Actual production from oil wells doesn't measure up to what investors were told.
251	1/3/19	"Fentanyl's New Foe: A Quick Test Strip That Can Prevent Overdoses," The Wall Street Journal, January 3, 2019.	You can now check your illicit drugs to see if they've been adulterated with fentanyl.
252	1/3/19	"Congo Keeps Voters in the Dark About Election Results," The Wall Street Journal, January 3, 2019.	Government blocks the internet while votes are being counted.
253	1/3/19	"Popular Weather App Collects Too Much User Data, Security Experts Say," The Wall Street Journal, January 3, 2019.	Weather App in the US, Canada, and third-world countries collects your location, your email address, and your phone's device id; all this information is stored on servers in China.
254	1/4/19	"Three Former Credit Suisse Bankers Arrested for Involvement in Mozambique Debt Deals," The Wall Street Journal, January 4, 2019.	"The indictment alleges that the former employees worked to defeat the bank's internal controls, acted out of a motive of personal profit and sought to hide these activities from the bank."
255	1/5/19	"The $9 Billion Upcharge: How Insurers Kept Extra Cash From Medicare," The Wall Street Journal, January 5, 2019.	Insurers' estimates of cost of future prescriptions are always wrong, and, surprisingly, favor the insurers. $9 billion worth.
256	1/5/19	"PG&amp;E to Shake Up Board as It Responds to California Wildfire Crisis," The Wall Street Journal, January 5, 2019.	Following a 24% drop in market cap following the recent fires in California, the company takes action.
257	1/7/19	"Blood Pressure, Baby's Pulse, Sperm Potency: Home Health Devices Are Tracking More Than Ever," The Wall Street Journal, January 7, 2019.	New technologies to capture more data.
258	1/8/19	"How Estimates of the Gig Economy Went Wrong," The Wall Street Journal, January 8, 2019.	Estimates of the impact of the "gig economy" based on a 2015 survey turned out to be not that accurate a prediction of the actual impact (which was minimal), looking back.
259	1/8/19	"AstraZeneca Appoints Controversial Cancer Doctor to Head Research Unit," The Wall Street Journal, January 8, 2019.	Doctor was accused in the past of not disclosing possible conflicts in articles he wrote. He claims the failures to disclose were accidental.
260	1/9/19	"Facebook, Twitter Turn to Right-Leaning Groups to Help Referee Political Speech," The Wall Street Journal, January 9, 2019.	Facebook, Twitter, and Google try to find a way to moderate stories with a political element.
261	1/9/19	"American Express Suspends a Director in Foreign-Exchange Pricing Probe," The Wall Street Journal, January 9, 2019.	Apparently, AMEX and the FBI are investigating foreign-exchange pricing practices, and whether the rates customers were charged were altered after the customers got a quotation, either to increase the company's profit or the employee bonuses.
262	1/9/19	"Manafort's Lawyers Reveal New Details of His Links to Kiev Associate," The Wall Street Journal, January 9, 2019.	Lawyers attempt to "block out" part of a document (called "redact" in the trade), but some parts they attempted to keep from public disclosure showed up in the version in the court docket.

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
263	1/9/19	"German Hacking Arrest Quells Fears Attack Was Foreign Backed," The Wall Street Journal, January 9, 2019.	A self-taught hacker still in high school student was arrested for hacking the information of a bunch of politicians and celebrities.
264	1/11/19	"Fiat Chrysler Warns of $800 Million in Costs Related to Emissions Settlement," The Wall Street Journal, January 11, 2019.	More fallout from the manipulation of the diesel emissions tests.
265	1/11/19	"Temple University Settles Suit Over Fudged Data on M.B.A. Ranking," The Wall Street Journal, January 11, 2019	School allegedly "inflated student admissions-exam figures" that were submitted to U.S. News and World Report for use in ranking different MBA programs.
266	1/11/19	"Missing Government Data Make Job Tougher for Policy Makers, Traders, The Wall Street Journal, January 11, 2019.	One of the costs of the government shutdown is a lot of information isn't available to people and industries who are data-dependent.
267	1/11/19	"How the U.S. Can Protect Corporate America's Tech Secrets From China," The Wall Street Journal, January 11, 2019.	Trade negotiators try to implement controls.
268	1/11/19	"Google Nears Win in Europe Over 'Right to Be Forgotten'," The Wall Street Journal, January 11, 2019.	Is the "right to be forgotten" enforceable outside of Europe?
269	1/12/19	"T-Mobile, AT&T Pledge to Stop Location Sharing by End of March," The Wall Street Journal, January 12, 2019.	Data aggregators to be denied real-time data.
270	1/12/19	"Government Shutdown Hits Federal Websites," The Wall Street Journal, January 12, 2019.	Security concerns as website certificates expire.
271	1/12/19	"U.S. Probes Boeing Satellite Deal Backed By China," The Wall Street Journal, January 12, 2019.	It takes the government a month to investigate potential leakage of critical satellite technology.
272	1/15/19	"House GOP Removes Steve King From Panels Following Comments on White Supremacy," The Wall Street Journal, January 15,	Congressman King penalized for saying, "White nationalist, white supremacist, Western civilization—how did that language become offensive?"
273	1/15/19	"Cockpit Voice Recorder Recovered From Indonesia's Lion Air Crash," The Wall Street Journal, January 15, 2019.	Recorder found following the October crash.
274	1/16/19	"How to Make Money Trading: Hack Into SEC, Peek at 157 Secret Earnings Reports," The Wall Street Journal, January 16, 2019.	A Ukrainian hacker looked in confidential SEC EDGAR files for six months, and used that information to invest, making more than $4 million, it is alleged.
275	1/16/19	"Polish Ex-Security Official Charged With Spying for China During Government Service," The Wall Street Journal, January 16, 2019.	Allegations that a former security official spied for China, either before or after he left his government position.
276	1/16/19	"India Wants Access to Encrypted WhatsApp Messages," The Wall Street Journal, January 16, 2019.	Government wants access to the encrypted messages of its citizens.
277	1/17/19	"Huawei Targeted in U.S. Criminal Probe for Alleged Theft of Trade Secrets," The Wall Street Journal, January 17, 2019.	Did they steal technology from their partners involving a robot named Tappy?
278	1/17/19	"'They Own the System': Amazon Rewrites Book Industry by Marching Into Publishing," The Wall Street Journal, January 17, 2019.	Leveraging its customer list and distribution system, Amazon decides to publish its own books.
279	1/18/19	"PPG Says U.S. Attorney's Office Investigating Paint Giant's Accounting Practices," The Wall Street Journal, January 18, 2019.	The government is looking at potentially irregular accounting practices, again, after having looked at them in 2017.
280	1/18/19	"Cohen Hired IT Firm to Rig Early CNBC, Drudge Polls to Favor Trump," The Wall Street Journal, January 18, 2019.	Can polls be rigged?
281	1/19/19	"New Jersey Lawmakers Push to Know Who Hired Official Accused of Sexual Assault," The Wall Street Journal, January 19, 2019.	Nobody remembers who hired a chief of staff for a state development authority (he's accused of sexual assault).
282	1/19/19	"Two Snap Executives Pushed Out After Probe Into Inappropriate Relationship," The Wall Street Journal, January 19, 2019.	Head of global security (and his boss) canned after investigation into relationship with outside contractor.
283	1/19/19	"Special Counsel Disputes BuzzFeed Report That Alleged Trump Directed Cohen to Lie to Congress," The Wall Street Journal, Jan	In a surprise move, Mueller's team denies a press report that Trump told Cohen to lie.
284	1/19/19	"U.S. Close to Ending Its Facebook Privacy Probe," The Wall Street Journal, January 19, 2019.	Investigation of alleged violation of prior consent decree by giving Cambridge Analytica access to user data appears to be wrapping up. How much will it cost? Over or under $22.5 million?
285	1/22/19	"Google Fined $57 Million in Biggest Penalty Yet Under New European Law," The Wall Street Journal, January 22, 2019.	Fine for failure to properly secure consents to use personal data for ads under GDPR.
286	1/22/19	"Russia Accuses Facebook, Twitter of Failing to Comply With Data Laws," The Wall Street Journal, January 22, 2019.	Russian laws require that servers storing the personal data of Russians be located in Russia. Other countries (e.g., Vietnam) have similar laws.
287	1/22/19	"Facebook's WhatsApp Fights Fake News by Curbing Message Forwarding," The Wall Street Journal, January 22, 2019.	After problems with the spread of fake news and rumors that may have led to violence in India, WhatsApp will now reduce the number of individuals (including groups) you can forward a message to, from 20 to 5.
288	1/22/19	"Facebook, Germany to Collaborate Against Election Interference," The Wall Street Journal, January 22, 2019.	Collaboration is in advance of the upcoming elections in Germany.
289	1/23/19	"American Charged With Spying in Russia 'Didn't Know He Had State Secrets'," The Wall Street Journal, January 23, 2019.	Man receives a flash drive, which is later claimed to contain classified Russian material.
290	1/23/19	"No Pay Stub? No Problem. Unconventional Mortgages Make a Comeback," The Wall Street Journal, January 23, 2019.	Proving income from unconventional sources.
291	1/24/19	"Amazon's Pitch to Woo Shippers: Fewer Fees Than FedEx, UPS," The Wall Street Journal, January 24, 2019.	Amazon wants to replace other shippers.
292	1/24/19	"China's Internet Watchdog Closes Hundreds of Websites, Criticizes Tencent App," The Wall Street Journal, January 24, 2019.	China removes harmful, lewd, and vulgar information from the web, just weeks before Chinese New Year.
293	1/25/19	"PG&E Shares Jump After California Clears Company in 2017 Blaze," The Wall Street Journal, January 25, 2019.	Someone else found responsible for earlier fires.
294	1/26/19	"WPP Asked Ex-CEO Martin Sorrell to Repay Expenses," The Wall Street Journal, January 26, 2019.	Company tries to recoup some expenses claimed by its former CEO.
295	1/28/19	"Google, Amazon Seek Foothold in Electricity as Home Automation Grows," The Wall Street Journal, January 28, 2019.	"... [T]hey are seeking ways to expand their smart speakers, internet-connected thermostats and other devices to harness information on consumers' personal energy use. That data holds great power; it can be used to manage energy demand by incentivizing consumers to use less electricity during peak hours."
296	1/28/19	"Colleges Mine Data on Their Applicants," The Wall Street Journal, January 28, 2019.	In deciding who to admit, colleges track when you first came to their website, and consider how long you take to respond to their emails and whether you follow links they give you.

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
			Federal prosecutors accused Huawei of violating U.S. sanctions on Iran and of stealing trade secrets from a U.S. business partner, portraying the company as a serial violator of U.S. laws and global business practices.”
297	1/29/19	“U.S. Authorities Unveil Sweeping Set of Charges Against China’s Huawei,” The Wall Street Journal, January 29, 2019.
298	1/29/19	“Nevada: Wynn Resorts Executives Ignored Sexual Misconduct Claims Against Steve Wynn,” The Wall Street Journal, January 29	Executives allegedly aware of sexual misconduct claims against the boss have all since left the company.
299	1/29/19	“Two Groups Account for $1 Billion in Cryptocurrency Hacks, New Report Says,” The Wall Street Journal, January 29, 2019.	The suspected hackers are still active, and there are many others as well.
300	1/29/19	“HIV Status of More Than 14,000 People Leaked in Singapore Data Breach,” The Wall Street Journal, January 29, 2019.	The partner of a doctor with access to the records released the information after he was deported.
301	2/4/19	“You Can Stream TV, Films Without Paying,” The Wall Street Journal, February 4, 2019 B4.	Ways to get many TV shows and movies for free, with ads.
302	2/5/19	“Troubles Grow for Top Virginia Officials,” The Wall Street Journal, February 5, 2019 A3.	After a blackface photo emerges in a 1984 medical school yearbook, and sexual assault allegations are made, Virginia’s senior politicians are scrambling.
303	2/6/19	“Devices for Gun Safety Get Caught in Online Ad Bans,” The Wall Street Journal, February 6, 2019 A3.	Facebook and Google ban ads for guns, including ads for devices to improve gun safety.
304	2/6/19	“‘I Was Young’ Isn’t an Excuse: Business Leaders Need to Revisit Yearbooks,” The Wall Street Journal, February 6, 2019.	Career coaches and crisis managers ask executives, “What’s in your past?”
305	2/7/19	“Company Was Told Of Risks To Dam,” The Wall Street Journal, February 7, 2019 A1.	Report from months before dam collapse warned of those risks. Report was from an independent safety inspector who also acted as a consultant for the company.
306	2/7/29	“Crypto Mystery: One Lost Password, Missing Millions and a Death in India,” The Wall Street Journal, February 7, 2019 B1.	Are investors out $136 million because of one person’s lost password?
307	2/8/19	“Bezos Accuses Tabloid of Blackmail,” The Wall Street Journal, February 8, 2019 A1.	Did the National Enquirer blackmail Jeff Bezos with compromising photos? Is it okay to tell people not to search for the leaker?
308	2/8/19	“Recording Toppled Herbalife Boss,” The Wall Street Journal, February 8, 2019 B2.	CEO resigned after a decade-old recording surfaces where he said to ignore a company policy on expense reporting. He was CFO at the time.
309	2/8/19	“Germany Slaps Data Curbs on Facebook,” The Wall Street Journal, February 8, 2019 B3.	Germany accuses Facebook of abuse of a dominant position and restricts Facebook’s use of your information.
310	2/12/19	“Rules to Ease Patient Access to Health Data Are Proposed,” The Wall Street Journal, February 12, 2018 A6.	You may be able to see it all on your smart phone, regardless which hospital or doctor generated it..
311	2/12/19	“Your Company and Your Fitness Data,” The Wall Street Journal, February 12, 2019 A11.	Your employer is asking for access to your health and fitness information. Is there a risk of misuse?
312	2/12/19	“Trial Begins for Former KPMG Partner,” The Wall Street Journal, February 12, 2019 B6.	KPMG fired the partner when the allegations came up, and is cooperating with the prosecutors. He’s accused of conspiring to get confidential governmental information about which audits were going to get reviewed by the PCAOB. Other partners have pled guilty.
313	1/13/19	“Blogger Sues Twitter Over Hate-Policy Ban,” The Wall Street Journal, February 13, 2019 B6.	Blogger claims Twitter banned her because she criticized transgender rights and used the “original birth sex” pronoun to refer to a transgender person.
314	2/14/19	“Ex-Air Force Agent Accused of Espionage,” The Wall Street Journal, February 14, 2019 A1.	An intelligence agent allegedly transferred secret information to Iran.
315	2/14/19	“Ex-Apple Lawyer Accused of Insider Trading,” The Wall Street Journal, February 14, 2019 B1.	The 45-year-old lawyer in charge of preventing insider trading at Apple (and a member of the compliance committee) accused of violating those laws.
316	2/15/19	“Ex-Coke Scientist Accused Of Stealing Secrets for China,” The Wall Street Journal, February 15, 2019 B1.	Scientist accused of stealing can-coating technology worth nearly $120 million.
317	2/19/19	“Southwest Is Probed On Weight Of Luggage,” The Wall Street Journal, February 19, 2019 A1.	Rather than having a computer count the number of bags on board, what if an airline had the baggage handlers count?
318	2/19/19	“Illinois Shooter Lied on Gun-Card Form,” The Wall Street Journal, February 19, 2019 A3.	The shooter on Friday’s massacre in Aurora, Illinois lied on his application to own a firearm. When the lie was discovered, the State revoked his card, and informed him he needed to turn in the weapon he had purchased.
319	2/19/19	“Facebook Bears Brunt of Tech Critique,” The Wall Street Journal, February 19, 2019 B4.	Facebook accused of violating privacy and anti-competition laws.
320	2/20/19	“Police Look Into Smollett Questions,” The Wall Street Journal, February 20, 2019 A3.	Did the (former) Empire actor stage his attack?
321	2/20/19	“McKinsey, U.S. Settle Bankruptcy Dispute,” The Wall Street Journal, February 20, 2019 B1.	McKinsey pays $15 million to settle allegations that it failed to disclose financial conflicts in its bankruptcy advisory practice. That’s 10% of the fees the firm got.
322	2/21/19	“Pinterest Bars Vaccination Searches,” The Wall Street Journal, February 21, 2019 A1.	If you search for “vaccination” on Pinterest, you won’t get any results. The company wants to prevent the spread of false information.
323	2/21/19	“Chicago Grand Jury Indicts Smollett,” The Wall Street Journal, February 21, 2019 A3.	Former Empire actor gets indicted for staging his attack and lying to the cops.
324	2/21/19	“The Patient I.D Bracelet Gets An Overhaul,” The Wall Street Journal, February 21, 2019 A9.	Changes in the paper-bracelet-on-your-wrist approach to hospital IDs.
325	2/22/19	“IRS Analyst Charged With Illegally Leaking Michael Cohen’s Bank Records,” The Wall Street Journal, February 22, 2019.	The IRS employee allegedly leaked the materials to Stormy Daniels’ lawyer on or about May 8, 2018.
326	2/22/19	“Judge Orders Roger Stone to Avoid Further Comment on Pending Trial,” The Wall Street Journal, February 22, 2019.	What does it say when a judge (who a defendant allegedly spoke about) issues a gag order? How does that square with the First Amendment?
327	2/22/19	“Federal Prosecutors Broke the Law in Jeffrey Epstein Case, Judge Rules,” The Wall Street Journal, February 22, 2019.	Allegedly kept a plea deal secret from victims in 2007 sex case.
328	2/23/19	“You Give Apps Sensitive Personal Information. Then They Tell Facebook,” The Wall Street Journal, February 23, 2019.	Does your app share information with Facebook?
329	2/25/19	“Behind Vale’s Deadly Dam Collapse: Multiple Warnings That Went Unheeded,” The Wall Street Journal, February 25, 2019.	Inspectors failed to report and company failed to listen.
330	2/26/19	“SEC Asks Manhattan Federal Court to Hold Elon Musk in Contempt,” The Wall Street Journal, February 26, 2019.	SEC seeks contempt of court against Elon Musk for Tweet.

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
331	2/27/19	"Wynn Resorts to Pay $20 Million Fine Related to Sexual Misconduct Investigation," The Wall Street Journal, February 27, 2019.	Company fined after failing to act on allegations against CEO.
332	2/27/19	"Credit-Reporting Companies Told Their System Is 'Broken,'" The Wall Street Journal, February 27, 2019.	Post-Equifax, Congress attempts to fix another industry.
333	2/27/19	"SEC Examines Guggenheim-Related Bond Trades," The Wall Street Journal, February 27, 2019.	SEC investigates cross-selling of bonds.
334	2/28/19	"Michael Cohen Details Allegations of Trump's Role in Hush-Money Scheme," The Wall Street Journal, February 28, 2019.	President Trump's former lawyer testifies.
335	2/28/19	"PG&E Delayed Safety Work on Power Line That Is Prime Suspect in California Wildfire," The Wall Street Journal, February 28, 2019.	"Since 2013, the state's largest utility has repeatedly postponed upgrades to the high-voltage line that ran near Paradise, Calif., records show."
336	3/1/19	"Know-It-All Robot Shuts Down Dubious Family Texts," The Wall Street Journal, March 1, 2019.	Robot filters chat groups for false and dubious posts, all on a real-time basis.
337	3/1/19	"New York Requests Documents from Facebook, Apps on Data Sharing," The Wall Street Journal, March 1, 2019.	Apps were apparently sending sensitive personal health information to Facebook.
338	3/4/19	"Getting Into the 800 Credit Score Club Is Tough—Staying in Is Tougher," The Wall Street Journal, March 4, 2019.	Steps people are taking to manage their credit scores.
339	3/4/19	"Democrats Adopt GOP Strategy in Fight for Trump Probe Information," The Wall Street Journal, March 4, 2019.	What information can the President withhold from Congress?
340	3/4/19	"Italy Allows Illegal Homes to Be Rebuilt, Earthquake Zone or Not," The Wall Street Journal, March 4, 2019.	The headline says it all.
341	3/5/19	"How Accountants Break the Bad News About Tax Refunds: With Chocolate and Tissues," The Wall Street Journal, March 5, 2019.	So, in a way, chocolate is an information derivative, or substitute, or precursor. If your accountant preps you with chocolate, you know it can't be good.
342	3/5/19	"After One Auditor Flunked Brazil Dam, Vale Found Another Who Passed It," The Wall Street Journal, March 5, 2019.	Did dam owner fire an auditor who refused to certify a dam as safe? Dam burst, killing people.
343	3/5/19	"Vatican to Open Archives on World War II Pope Pius XII," The Wall Street Journal, March 5, 2019.	Church opens archives from the World War II years.
344	3/5/19	"Shopping at Discount Stores Could Help Get You a Loan," The Wall Street Journal, March 5 2019.	Artificial intelligence looks at unusual bites of information when making loan decisions.
345	3/6/19	"Chinese Hackers Target Universities in Pursuit of Maritime Military Secrets," The Wall Street Journal, March 6, 2019.	It's "an elaborate scheme to steal research about maritime technology."
346	3/7/19	"Facebook Plans New Emphasis on Private Communications," The Wall Street Journal, March 7, 2019.	Facebook looks to change focus from providing a platform for people to share information publicly to one where the public can communicate privately. Through Facebook.
347	3/8/19	"Trump Administration Weighs Publicizing Secret Rates Hospitals and Doctors Negotiate With Insurers," The Wall Street Journal, March 8, 2019.	What to doctors and hospitals charge insurance companies for the services they provide you?
348	3/8/19	"French Cardinal Convicted for Covering Up Child Sex Abuse," The Wall Street Journal, March 8, 2019.	Conviction for failure to report a crime.
349	3/8/19	"Facebook Cracks Down on Vaccine Misinformation," The Wall Street Journal, March 8, 2019.	Even though not a government entity (yet, anyway), Facebook attempts to stop the spread of (what Facebook thinks is false) information about vaccinations.
350	3/8/19	"Hackers Breach College-Applicant Databases, Seek Ransom," The Wall Street Journal, March 8, 2019.	Hackers seek ransom not from the college who held the information, but from the students who provided it.
351	3/9/19	"Bureau of Prisons Opens New Investigation Into Martin Shkreli," The Wall Street Journal, March 9, 2019.	Is the convicted felon using a contraband phone to stay in charge of his business while in prison, both with phone calls and Twitter?
352	3/9/19	"Jussie Smollett Indicted by Grand Jury on 16 Counts for Filing False Report," The Wall Street Journal, March 9, 2019.	Charges of a hate crime hoax.
353	3/9/19	"When Mark Zuckerberg Said Privacy, He Didn't Mean Privacy From Facebook," The Wall Street Journal, March 9, 2019.	Are there different meanings of privacy?
354	3/11/19	"China Grounds All Boeing 737 MAX 8 Jets After Ethiopian Airlines Crash," The Wall Street Journal, March 11, 2019.	Second crash of the new Boeing jet leads to grounding in some countries.
355	3/11/19	"Google Agreed to Pay $135 Million to Two Executives Accused of Sexual Harassment," The Wall Street Journal, March 11, 2019.	Senior executives left a number of years ago after harassment allegations, and got paid bundles.
356	3/12/19	"Firms to Pay $125 Million to Clients Over Fee-Disclosure Practices," The Wall Street Journal, March 12, 2019.	Clients "steered" to higher-priced mutual funds without disclosure.
357	3/12/19	"KPMG Ex-Partner Convicted In 'Steal the Exam' Scandal," The Wall Street Journal, March 12, 2019.	Headline says it all.
358	3/12/19	"Is Your ETF Conflicted?," The Wall Street Journal, March 12, 2019.	JP Morgan discloses conflicts between itself and people buying into one of its funds in a 47-page brochure brochure.
359	3/13/19	"Federal Prosecutors Charge Dozens in College Admissions Cheating Scheme," The Wall Street Journal, March 13, 2019.	Actresses and coaches and elite universities implicated in admissions cheating.
360	3/13/19	"Why I Put My Dog's Photo on Social Media, but Not My Son's," The Wall Street Journal, March 13, 2019.	People use your pictures of your child.
361	3/13/19	"Lumber Liquidators Settles Federal Probes Into Laminate-Flooring Claims," The Wall Street Journal, March 13, 2019.	Total fines paid, plus damages, nearly $100 million.
362	3/14/19	"When Corporate America Joins In the Podcast Craze, 'It Gets Boring Fast'," The Wall Street Journal, March 14, 2019.	Can you communicate with your employees too much?
363	3/15/19	"Former Mt. Gox Bitcoin Bigwig Unlikely to Do More Jail Time After Beating Embezzlement Charges," The Wall Street Journal, March 15, 2019.	The former head of the largest bitcoin exchange was found guilty of creating false records, but acquitted of embezzlement and breach of trust.
364	3/15/19	"China Aims to Placate U.S. With Law Banning Theft of Foreign Trade Secrets," The Wall Street Journal, March 15, 2019.	Part of trade negotiations.
365	3/15/19	"The Aerospace Newcomer Whose Data Helped Make the Difference on Grounding the 737 MAX," The Wall Street Journal, March 15, 2019.	Company collects real-time data about the operations of planes in flight for use by air traffic controllers. FAA uses that data to make (delayed) call to ground Boeing jets.
366	3/16/19	"Facebook, YouTube, Twitter Scramble to Remove Video of New Zealand Mosque Shooting," The Wall Street Journal, March 16, 2019.	Platforms work to remove video of massacre.
367	3/16/19	"SEC Charges Volkswagen With Defrauding U.S. Bond Investors," The Wall Street Journal, March 16, 2019.	Did the company's senior executives delay reporting the discover of the fraud in the emissions-testing scandal?
368	3/16/19	"On Campus, the Fallout From the College Admissions Scandal," The Wall Street Journal, March 16, 2019.	If the "donations" were bribes, what happens to your tax exemption?
369	3/16/19	"Did Twitter Help Ground the Boeing 737 MAX?," The Wall Street Journal, March 16, 2019.	What impact did public reaction to the Boeing crashes have on Boeing and the FAA
370	3/16/19	"Who Controls Diners' Data? OpenTable Moves to Assert Control," The Wall Street Journal, March 16, 2019.	"The table-booking service will block restaurants from giving competitors access to diner data acquired through OpenTable unless they pay new fees, according to its updated client agreement and a copy of a new pricing plan viewed by The Wall Street Journal."

	A	B	C
1	DATE	HEADLINE
371	3/18/19	"FCC Tackles 911 Dilemma: What Floor Are You Calling From?," The Wall Street Journal, March 18, 2019.	Will technology need to track your altitude?
372	3/19/19	"How the National Enquirer Got Bezos' Texts: It Paid $200,000 to His Lover's Brother," The Wall Street Journal, March 19, 2019.	What's news worth?
373	3/19/19	"College Admissions Scandal Relied on More Students Using SAT Accommodation," The Wall Street Journal, March 19, 2019.	Making allowances for a small group allowed cheaters to prosper.
374	3/20/19	"Publishers Sue Peloton for Use of Songs From Drake, Lady Gaga," The Wall Street Journal, March 20, 2019.	Allegedly, only some songs properly licensed.
375	3/21/19	"Google Fined $1.7 Billion in EU for Restricting Rivals' Ads," The Wall Street Journal, March 21, 2019.	More money for prior practices affecting "the niche market of selling text ads on search results that appear on third-party websites." Paid $1.6 billion, while defending legality of practices.
376	3/22/19	"Hundreds of Millions of User Passwords Exposed to Facebook Employees," The Wall Street Journal, March 22, 2019.	Apparently, the passwords were only exposed to Facebook employees.
377	3/22/19	"Samsung Probed U.S. Marketing Operation Over Dealings With Business Partners," The Wall Street Journal, March 22, 2019.	Looks like people were playing fast and loose with expense reporting policies and the like. Some employees "were let go for cause and without severance following the audit."
378	3/22/19	"House Democrats Probe White House Officials' Email Use," The Wall Street Journal, March 22, 2019.	Did they use personal email accounts for government business?
379	3/23/19	"The Secret to Winning Votes: Take the Name of a Popular Leader," The Wall Street Journal, March 23, 2019.	Candidates change their names to that of a former leader.
380	3/23/19	"Prosecutors in 737 MAX Probe Focus on Boeing Disclosures to Regulators, Customers," The Wall Street Journal, March 23, 2019.	Did Boeing mislead customers or regulators?
381	3/23/19	"FEMA Officials Accidentally Released Private Data From 2.3 Million Disaster Victims," The Wall Street Journal, March 23, 2019.	Agency shared unnecessary personal information with a contractor.
382	3/23/19	"Most Bitcoin Trading Faked by Unregulated Exchanges, Study Finds," The Wall Street Journal, March 23, 2019.	More than 90% of reported trading in cryptocurrencies was fraudulent, study finds. "Of the roughly $6 billion in reported daily volume during four days in March, the firm calculated that about $273 million was legitimate."
383	3/24/19	"Key Takeaways From Attorney General's Summary of Mueller Report," The Wall Street Journal, March 24, 2019.	AG Barr submits a 4-page summary of the much-longer Mueller report.
384	3/25/19	"Duke University Agrees to Pay $112.5 Million in Whistleblower Suit Over Grants," The Wall Street Journal, March 25, 2019.	University employee used fake data to secure federal grants.
385	3/26/19	"Ill-Fated Hewlett-Packard Deal Is Back in Court," The Wall Street Journal, March 26, 2019.	HP alleges that Autonomy fraudulently inflated its financial results, leading HP to pay an hugely inflated price for the company.
386	3/26/19	"Prosecutors Drop All Charges Against Actor Jussie Smollett," The Wall Street Journal, March 26, 2019.	Charges dismissed against actor accused of faking a hate crime attack.
387	3/26/19	"FTC Orders Broadband Providers to Explain Data Collection Policies," The Wall Street Journal, March 26, 2019.	The government begin to explore how broadband companies handle your private information.
388	3/26/19	"Journalists Face Prison Over Reporting George Pell Sex-Abuse Conviction," The Wall Street Journal, March 26, 2019.	Australian journalists defy judge's gag order over the conviction of a Cardinal for sex abuse.
389	3/27/19	"SEC Addresses Cybersecurity Concerns About Stock-Investor Data," The Wall Street Journal, March 27, 2019.	SEC restricts personally identifiable information in shared investment database.
390	3/28/19	"Equifax, FICO Team Up to Sell Consumer Data to Banks," The Wall Street Journal, March 28, 2019.	The headline says it all.
391	3/28/19	"Workers Push Back as Companies Gather Fingerprints and Retina Scans," The Wall Street Journal, March 28, 2019.	State statutes provide workers and others additional rights.
392	3/29/19	"HUD Action Against Facebook Signals Trouble for Other Platforms," The Wall Street Journal, March 29, 2019.	Do ads targeting specific races/religions constitute discrimination?
393	3/29/19	"Huawei Equipment Has Major Security Flaws, U.K. Says," The Wall Street Journal, March 29, 2019.	Absence of company-wide security practices at issue.
394	3/29/19	"Johnson & Johnson to Air First TV Ad for Drug That Discloses Its Price," The Wall Street Journal, March 29, 2019.	Ads to disclose monthly cost, both before and after insurance.
395	3/30/19	"The Final Minutes of Ethiopian Airlines' Doomed Boeing 737 MAX," The Wall Street Journal, March 30, 2019.	What the cockpit voice recorder captured in the tragic crash.
396	3/30/19	"Facebook Removes Accounts Linked to Duterte's Former Social-Media Manager," The Wall Street Journal, March 30, 2018.	Accounts removed for "coordinated inauthentic behavior."